

Jack L. Jacobia

EXPERIENCE

1997
to present

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY, INDIANAPOLIS & INSTITUTE FOR FORENSIC IMAGING

LABORATORY MANAGER & CHIEF INSTRUCTOR

- Direct the day-to-day operations of the Institutes forensic imaging lab
- Built and maintain 20 digital imaging stations in crime labs located throughout the state of Indiana
- Consult with law enforcement agencies, both locally and throughout the country on their digital imaging needs
- Developed and instruct ten separate courses on the use of traditional, and digital imaging as well as video and computer forensics for law enforcement. Has now trained over 2,000 peace officers worldwide
- Expert Witness, State of Indiana v Juan Miguel Serrano, Lake County Cause # 45G01-0010-CF-00213

1995
to 1997

COMPUTER IMAGING SERVICES/INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

OWNER-OPERATOR

- Provided software/computer training, digital photo retouching, and desktop publishing services
- Software instructor for CompUSA, Inc
- Private tutoring on software and computer fundamentals
- Contract trainer for Computer Systems Resources

1986
to 1995

DEFENSE INFORMATION SCHOOL, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
SUPERVISORY TRAINING SPECIALIST, DEPUTY DIRECTOR, PHOTOJOURNALISM SCHOOL

- Supervised 12 instructors and support personnel. Selected and made recommendations on hiring personnel.
- Planned, developed, wrote and updated courses in photography, photojournalism and digital imaging for five programs of instruction.
- Evaluated field user needs and equipment, and developed five-year forecast for equipment and material purchases.
- Taught all facets of photojournalism and digital imaging to over 1,000 students annually.
- Managed annual consumable budget of $80,000.
- Researched and designed the first digital imaging course of instruction for the Department of Defense
- Established the digital imaging center and trained the instructor staff

1981
to 1986

CAMPRO, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

CO-OWNER, OPERATOR

- Managed day-to-day operations of a photo retail & repair business.
- Customer sales, equipment repair and photo finishing.
- Purchased supplies, billed customers and maintained inventory control.

1961
to 1981

UNITED STATES NAVY

PHOTOGRAPHER, COMMAND SENIOR CHIEF

- Assignments as a photographer, and lab technician trained in black & white, color processes, and photo supply. 12 years with supervisor/manager duties.
- Distinguished graduate of Instructor Training School. Eight years teaching at the Navy Photo Schools and the Defense Information School.

men.

EDUCATION

1993 Contracting Officer Representative's School

1991 Civilian Supervisors Training

1986 Instructor Training (Army)
1975 Career Counseling School
1974 Leadership-Management Training
1972 Navy Advanced Photo School
1968 Instructor Training (Navy)
1966 Navy Class (C) Photo Repair School
1963 Navy Photo School
1963 High School

AWARDS

1995 Civilian Service Award
1994 Outstanding Rating
1993 Unusually Outstanding Rating
1992 Quality Step Increase
1969 William O Florstedt Instructor of the year award

SPECIAL SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE

Obtained through factory training, in-house training, and on-the-job training, seminars and workshops.

Extensive experience with these subjects, both writing training materials and teaching:

Adobe Pagemaker	Macintosh Computers
QuarkXPress	P C's (IBM comp)
Microsoft Word	Film & Flatbed Scanners
Adobe Photoshop	Digital Cameras
Microsoft Excel	CD Writers
MS-DOS	Adobe Illustrator
Microsoft Windows	Microsoft Access
Microsoft Powerpoint	CorelDraw
Film Processing	Photography
Computer Building	Computer Maintenance
Computer Forensics/EnCase	Video Capture/IFI Video System

ADDENDUM TO RESUME
JACK L. JACOBIA

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS & PUBLICATIONS

"Computer Forensics First Responder", article in Law Enforcement Technology magazine

"Choosing A Digital Camera", article in Law Enforcement Technology magazine

Textbook author (with Herbert Blitzer), Forensic Digital Imaging & Photography, 2002, Academic Press

"Introduction to Digital Imaging" presentation to International Association of Identification Association

"Introduction to Digital Imaging" presentation to the Arson Investigators of Indiana.

"Introduction to Digital Imaging" presentation to the Marion Co. Prosecutor's Office

"Digital Imaging for Law Enforcement" and Crime Scene Photography, special courses for the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy

TRAINING PUBLICATIONS AND WORKBOOKS

Introduction to Digital Imaging, for photographers and graphic artists

Advanced Digital Imaging, for photographers and graphic artists

Forensic Digital Imaging and Photography, a book with Herbert Blitzer, Academic Press, 2002

Advanced Forensic Digital Imaging

Using the digital camera for domestic violence investigations

Microsoft PowerPoint for Courtroom Presentations

Databasing Digital Images

Computer Forensics

Video Capture and Enhancement