

Marvin E. "Bud" McCorkle

BMA-Bud McCorkle & Associates

Security Consultant, Chief of Police, Retired

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING

1963-1965

Desert Security Police, Victorville, California

1966-1978

Anderson Police Department, Anderson, Indiana

Assigned to the Uniform patrol division

Motorcycle patrol division

Detective (Organized Crime Unit)

1993-2002

Chief of Police, Ingalls Police Department, Ingalls, Indiana

1978-Present

President/owner/operator of BMA

1978-Present

Licensed Private Investigator, Indiana

1978-2005

VP Loss Prevention

Paul Harris Stores Inc.

1979

Attended Diogenes & Associates

Burlington, Vermont

Trained in the use of PSE while employed at Paul Harris Stores. Administered over 10,000 (VSA) detection of deception tests.

1979 to Present

Attended annual training, recertification per association bylaws

1982 Certified by ISSA (International Society of Stress Analysts) as a certified stress analyst

1983 Certified by ISSA in the field of Polygraph Examination

1989 Certified by ISSA with the title of “Fellow” in the field of VSA

1990-1995 Vice President of ISSA

1995 – Present President of ISSA

2002-Present President American Polygraph and Voice Stress Analysis Association

2001-Present Instructor, beginner/advanced VSA school

2005-Present Co-Instructor with Baker Group International (www.bakerdvsa.com) in training various law enforcement departments in the use of VSA and the recertification of police officers and detectives in 2009

* Special guest speaker at ISSA seminars on the use of the PSE/VSA, telephone testing

* Hosted many training schools for private and law enforcement examiners

* Testified in civil hearings on the use of the VSA Madison County court system

* Administered numerous tests in both civil and criminal cases for both prosecution and defense

* Has performed an estimated 20,000 to 25,000 examinations since 1979